Julia Martín is a singer, composer and actress from Malaga. After obtaining a degree in Musical Performance at the Malaga Drama School, she completed her studies in Rennes, France.
In November 2018 she published her first album S.U.P.E.R.R.E.A.L, a mixture of pop, R&B and hip hop music. She is presently composing what will be her second album.
In her live performances Julia Martin does live looping and beat box, she records sounds and instruments, modifies her voice, samples…developing and introducing her own compositions.
In this concert she will perform songs from her first album and some pieces from her next project.
