"Charlie Chaplin was one of the best actors and 'dancers' of all times, and was also outstanding and unforgettable for other reasons, including the integrity of his character, the extraordinary warmth of his gaze, the innocence of his acts, the simplicity of each scene (he used to say that simplicity was difficult to achieve). And of course because of his inestimable generosity and for converting a "poor, ordinary man" into a legend." Fernando Hurtado

Fernando Hurtado has been directing his own company for years. With his fertile creativity he has created multiple shows with which he has acquired national and international prestige in the field of contemporary dance and which have been acknowledged with significant nominations and awards. At present, he continues to create for his own company and for other companies in El Salvador, Costa Rica, Zimbabwe and Panama.
