Following the success of Alma del violín flamenco, Paco Montalvo returns to Malaga with his new show Grandes clásicos 2.0, consisting of the artist's best pieces together with some new, unpublished ones. Melodies and rhythms full of emotion in a selection of masterpieces of flamenco, classical music and tangos, and some of his own compositions. Recognised internationally as one of the best violinists of his generation, Paco Montalvo demonstrates amazing dexterity and unique sensitivity and passion for the art of flamenco violin, of which he is the maximum benchmark and with which he has conquered critics and music enthusiasts all over the world.

The musician from Cordoba is devoted to a permanent quest for artistic excellence, innovation and experimentation.

Paco Montalvo is a 31-year old Spanish classical and flamenco musician, and the youngest violinist to make a 21st century debut at Carnegie Hall in New York. He offers an original vision of the violin as the leading voice of flamenco. He has received numerous national and international awards that acknowledge and consolidate the prestige of his artistic career, including the Arthur Rubinstein award (2013), the Bandera de Andalucía (2016) award, Pepa de Utrera (2016) award, as well as the Gold Medal Averroes de Oro Award for the Noble Arts and the Venencia Flamenca al toque award (2020).

He has performed in more than 30 countries and in the world's best theatres and auditoriums.
