This year marks the centennial of the birth of Charlie Parker. Ernesto Aurignac and Moisés P. Sánchez present this tribute of the musician, performing their own arrangements of his most representative pieces. Aurignac, one of the most outstanding saxophonists of current jazz, has an exquisite and incredible command of the instrument and skilfully moves between tradition and the avant-garde. Sanchez is one of European jazz's most valuable musicians, with a unique conception of music. Both will offer an exceptional tribute to one of the most emblematic figures of jazz.
