The light of the bays of Cadiz, the sky of Malaga and the olive groves of Jaen. The dramatic essence and folklore of the verses of Federico García Lorca, Miguel Hernández, Rafael Alberti and Juan Ramón Jiménez. Memory in the music commemorating Paco de Lucía, Enrique Morente and Mercedes Sosa.
The truth of Carmen Linares' unique voice, singing that scratches and caresses at the same time. A singer who is a living legend of flamenco and essential in order to understand Spanish musical culture. Winner of the National Music Award in 2001, Carmen Linares celebrates a career of 40 years with a unique show and the most important songs of her life.
