Since her album No te olvides de mí in 2005 –double Platinum Record, nominated for the Latin Grammy and Ondas Award as Revelation Artist- until Resiliencia (2016), her riskiest and most personal work, Diana Navarro has not ceased to trigger in us emotions and to reap success. Ballads, flamenco, zarzuela, pop, Arab rhythms, tangos...the singer from Malaga feels at ease with nearly all musical genres, as revealed in her records and live performances, where she always gives one hundred percent. "For me the stage is like going to church for a Catholic. It is my sacred temple, where God is the audience." Once again we have the chance to see for ourselves.
