This is about the life of a couple, HE and SHE. On reaching old age, SHE likes sitting beneath the tree and recalling all the happy moments they have had there. This is a show that speaks on a pleasant, positive, amiable and amusing tone of our recollections of the persons with whom we grew up, persons who are always with us through our memories.

The company Pata Teatro wants to show the different phases of a person's life, to represent daily life as if it were an extraordinary event.
