Lice are devastating a neighbourhood school. The PTA has declared a state of war: there will be no compassion for those who do not use anti-parasitic shampoos. No one is going to come out of this acerbic comedy unhurt. Who is in charge of educating a child? The family? The school? Society..? Oppressive WhatsApp groups, wild mothers, lacto-vegetarian fathers, disoriented children, clobbered teachers...will try to find an answer to the incognito of education from Caramala's irreverent and cutting perspective.
