Magic mirror, tell me… ¿who is the most beautiful of all in this kingdom?
A vision from the other side of the mirror that deforms what it sees to reveal without modesty our sins and moral turpide. The audience, like innocent Alice, will cross the glass into the depths of The Black Mirror: a dark world where light reigns and where elegant, irreverent, tender, perverse, solitary creatures live…Souls full of corrosive and sarcastic humour. A parallel world where any fantasy or nonsense can come true.
