Death on the Nile is one of the most famous titles of Agatha Christie's prolific work devoted to crime and mystery. First published as novel in 1937, it became very popular as result of its film version in 1978, starring Peter Ustinov, David Niven, Mia Farrow, Bette Davis and Michael York, amongst others. As the author had done with other of her novels, in 1942 she adapted it into a stage play. This adaption by Victor Conde is a contemporary revision of an archetypal classic, presented through updated playwriting and staging, music, songs, theatrical choreography and projections.
