Surrounded by residential developments, an old garden with its nursery survives somewhere in the vicinity. But it has been a long time since the neighbours last saw Silvia, who owns the house with the old garden. Samuel, the gardener, is the only one left there, working hard to maintain this forgotten corner. Todas las noches de un día begins when the police arrives to try to discover Silvia's whereabouts. A struggle then ensues between life and recollections, between love and its phantoms.
